EDITO

Our French as a foreign language school is located in the historic centre of Toulouse, in the heart of an unquestionably dynamic and charming district.

Since 1991, we have welcomed more than 1,000 international students from over 60 different countries every year, providing an unforgettable multicultural learning experience.

The satisfaction of our students is at the heart of our priorities. That's why we're proud to announce that over 95% of our students say they are very satisfied with their language stay with us. Some even extend their stay or choose to return to continue improving their French.

At Langue Onze, we work with each student to help them achieve their language goals. Our teachers, all native speakers, qualified and experienced, are passionate about teaching French. Their diverse backgrounds and interests bring a unique dynamic to our courses.

With us, learning is not limited to the classroom. We also offer complete accommodation solutions for an immersive and welcoming stay, and our varied programme of cultural activities allows students to continue practising French outside the classroom and enjoy a rich and authentic experience at the heart of French culture.

Our school is also an examination centre for the TCF, DELF and DALF.

Toulouse, capital of the Occitanie region, is the ideal place to learn French and immerse yourself in French culture. Our school has excellent transport links and is ideally located just a few minutes walk from the famous Place du Capitole, in the heart of the cobbled streets of the city centre. Ideal for enjoying the city's rich historical and cultural heritage, as well as its friendly atmosphere.

Our professional, dynamic team is there to support our international students throughout their stay. With over 30 years' experience in teaching French, we guarantee a quality learning experience, complete immersion in the French language and culture and lasting friendships with other students...

WELCOME TO TOULOUSE

Toulouse, known as the Pink City, combines a wealth of history with the art of living and dynamism of a European metropolis.

As France's 4th largest city, it retains the spirit of a 'small town' with a remarkable cultural and historical heritage, while offering the vitality of a large, creative and innovative city. Ideally situated between the Atlantic Ocean, the Pyrenees and the Mediterranean coast, Toulouse benefits from regional influences and is the perfect starting point for a variety of excursions in south-west France.

Its architecture is breathtaking, with UNESCO-listed sites such as the Capitole and the Canal du Midi testifying to its historical treasures.

In South-West France, you'll be charmed by the melodious accent, generous cuisine and renowned friendliness.
Take a stroll through the narrow streets of the old town, savour a cassoulet or duck breast, and enjoy the French way of life.

Rugby is an integral part of the region's heritage, with the famous century-old club, Stade Toulousain.

The pink city is also a centre of knowledge and industry. It is renowned for its advances in research, particularly in the fields of aeronautics, space, biotechnology and high technology, with a rich history and illustrious names in these fields. Today, it is home to the headquarters of Airbus and the Centre National d'Études Spatiales (CNES), offering exciting opportunities for discovery.

Toulouse attracts a diverse population of professionals and students, offering many opportunities to meet people and go out. It is a cosmopolitan university town, welcoming many international students. It is regularly ranked as the best student city in France and offers a wide variety of university courses and professional experience. Come and discover Toulouse, a welcoming city, rich in heritage, dynamic and conducive to learning French as well as an unforgettable immersion in French culture.
